

*Ashland County Park District
110 Cottage Street
Ashland, OH 44805*

The Ashland County Park District will hold its annual deer gun and waterfowl lottery for the 2009 hunting season. Parks included in this year's lottery are Black Fork Bottoms, Cooke Family Park, Cool Springs, Gilliom-Cherp and Audubon Wetlands.

The lottery will be held on Saturday, August 15, 2009 in conjunction with the dedication of its newest hunting park, Gilliom-Cherp. Tours of the park will begin at 9:00 am. Dedication will begin at 10:00 am.

For a $5.00 fee, you can put your name in the lottery. Winning lottery hunters will be able to pick the park and day they want to hunt and will be allowed one hunting partner each day. You must be present at the lottery to secure hunting days. A deer youth season lottery will also be held at no charge. The deer lottery will start at 11:30am. and waterfowl will start at 1pm. Maps and park regulations will be available and also posted on kiosks at each of the parks.

The Gilliom-Cherp is located in Richland County on St. Rt. 603, 2 miles south of St. Rt. 42. This 163 acre park has a variety of fields, marshes and wooded lots that wind along the Black Fork River. With its many pools and hilly terrain this is surely one of Ashland County's premier hunting parks.

A lunch will be available by donation
